MATHURA

Mathura, the birth place of Lord Krishna, is ideally located with just a 90 minute drive from Delhi NCR and Agra. It is well connected by national highways and the Yamuna Expressway by road and is a popular junction for rail travel.

Mathura has a thriving industrial and economic zone. Today it has become a leading contributor to the economy of Uttar Pradesh. Mathura Refinery located in the city is one of the biggest oil refineries of Asia. Sectors like textile printing, silver ornaments, faucets & bathroom accessories are making immense progress.

It is also a hub for production of milk based sweet meats, prominent among them being pedas & burfis. Mathura is one of the largest trading centre of fresh dairy products in the region.

Sacred waters of River Yamuna too flow through this district making some tourist spots popular including Vishram Ghat and Ashkunda Ghat. Temples like Keshav Dev Temple (the birthplace of Lord Krishna) and Dwarikadeesh Temple witness a huge footfall of Radhe Shyama devotees throughout the year.

the brijwasi the brijwasi experience

Brijwasi Group is a Mathura based enterprise with business interest in the food & beverages and hospitality sector. With experience of more than six decades, the Brijwasi Group has the distinction of making Mathura Pedas, a unique delicacy which any visitor to the city is unlikely to miss.

The quality of Brijwasi sweets and its warm service has been hugely appreciated and has made Brijwasi a preferred sweets brand in the region.

Over the years, the Group has expanded its reach and opened a chain of sweets and confectionary outlets. Today it has a wide variety of sweets, namkeens, packaged assortments, milk beverages that are consumed across India and globally.

The Group diversified into the hospitality sector in the year 2001 with the opening of Hotel Brijwasi Royal. The latest addition is the Hotel Brijwasi Lands Inn, designed for the new-age business and leisure traveler to Mathura.
